

CONCURRENT SESSIONS

Room	Friday 10:30-12:00	Friday 3:00-4:45	Saturday 1:00-2:30	Saturday 3:00-4:30
Nelson	Lily Fessenden, On Ecological Literacy	Bill Jeffries, The Photography of Chris Jordan: Illustrating the Ecological Footprint	JC Miller, A Lovely Nuisance: Ethics and the Eucalyptus in California	Ellen Stackable, The Cultural, Environmental and Economic Impact of Mega Hog Farms
	Mike Carr, Teaching for Bioregionalism	Vivian Atwater, Ecology and Cultural Identity in Landscape Traditions	Narcisa Medianu, Urban Gardens: Between Culture and Nature	Martin Anderson, The Man Eaters of Tsavo: Humans &amp; Large Carnivorous Mammals
Comox	William Rubel, Natural Wisdom: Lao Tzu and Emily Dickenson	Clay Hamilton, Prediction Theory and Nature	Karen Ravensbergen, Paying Attention to the Lived Experience	Michael Thoma, The Hollywood Cinema, Nature and Culture
	Mari-Lou Rowley, Ecopoetics And Biosemiotics: Compatible Codominants of the "Understory"	Terry Bryant, Machiavellian Green: Practical Judgment and the Environmental Calculus	Vivian Arcidiacono, What if the World Cannot Agree to Reduce Carbon Emissions?	Peggy Watt and Wm Dietrich, Media Coverage of Climate Change
Gilford	Noel Salmond, Evaluating The Claim that Environmentalism is a New Religion	Chris Morrissey, Heidegger and Aristotle on the Consciousness of Nature	Paul Ulrich, Hobbes's Natural Condition: Its Basis and some Consequences to Climate Issues	Bryon Williams, Mythos and Wildness: Thoreau's Anthropology of Self
	Joseph Siry, Unstable Airs Acidified Waters and Endangered Places	John Farnsworth, Resituating Nature: Where we go when the Dust Settles	David Livingstone, Rousseau and the Non-Teleological View of Nature	Dorothy McLeer, "Concrete" Learning: The Case for Non-Formal Experiential Education &amp; Env. Interpretive Centers
Parkside	Stephen Law, Lucretius, Consciousness, and the way Things Are.	Andrew Czink, Sound Reasons Environment and Auditory Experience
	Greg Scutt, Michel Serres On Climate Change	Pearl Hunt, Re-Call, Re-Build &amp; Re-Claim. Postcards from Post-Katrina
Barclay				Elisa Robyn and Therese Lincoln, The Seven Directions and Innovation