Notifications will be made by February 20, 2012.

Deadline for conference registration: March 9, 2012

The Master of Arts in Liberal Studies program at East Tennessee State University in Johnson City, Tennessee, invites you to submit proposals for the 2012 Regional Graduate Liberal Studies Conference to be held April 6-7, 2012, on the ETSU campus.

The 2012 Regional GLS Conference is open to faculty, students, and alumni in any area of graduate liberal studies. Proposals will be accepted for papers, demonstrations, roundtable discussions of ongoing research, and pre-arranged panels. Please include your full name, graduate program affiliation and institution, title of presentation, phone number, e-mail, and mailing address with your proposal.

Proposals for individual presentations and demonstrations of approximately 20 minutes should include an abstract of no more than 300 words. Proposals for roundtable discussions and pre-arranged panels should include a proposal of approximately 300 words from each member, plus a group proposal of approximately 100 words outlining the focus of and rationale for the roundtable or panel. Roundtable presentations should be approximately 30 minutes long; pre-arranged panels should be approximately 60 minutes long (maximum four presenters). Proposals will be accepted via email only to leroyfra@etsu.edu. Deadline is midnight on Sunday, February 5, 2012.

Final decisions for proposal acceptance will be made by February 20, 2012, and notifications will be sent by e-mail. Registration fees, hotel accommodations, and other information for presenters and attendees will be posted on our Website (www.etsu.edu/academicaffairs/scs/mals/default.aspx) at a later date.
